

PETAR TOTEV

Curiosity killed the cat but resurrected a code-loving dog from the ashes of his routines as an architect.

STRENGTHS

Will (Stubbornness?)

Will is my Superpower. If I decide to stick to something - I just do. For example, I smoked cigarettes for 7 years (a-pack-a-day). But 11 months ago I decided it is time to stop, so I just... stopped. No negotiations, no bargaining, no one-last-smoke.

Hard working

My overly ambitious parents, the 6 years in UACEG and my natural desire to prove and contribute made me a hard-working man. Whenever I feel like something is missing in a project I try to compensate with extra work to neutralize the imperfections.

Persuader

According to my Predictive Index (PI) I am a "risk-taking, socially poised and motivating team builder". Highly Sociable, Driving and Flexible. I couldn't agree more.

PASSIONS

Hiking

Nothing gives a more objective perspective than looking at your 'downtown' deeds from above.

Biking

It is fast, it is fun, it is my panacea for anxiety before an important presentation.

Birdwatching

Sounds boring to most people, but observing birds is actually quite a dynamical and detail-oriented hobby.

Playing with LEGO

I just always loved modularity that leads to infinite results - no matter my current age.
